C Jubilate Deo by Malcolm Guite

Love bids us welcome with them to the feast
Let us be joyful therefore, let us sing
Old Hundredth with our forbears. One high priest

Calls us together in a great thanksgiving
To come before his presence with a song,
Enter his courts with praise, be glad and bring

Our very best to him. For we belong
To him since he has made us, and our hearts
Will find their peace in him alone. We long

Therefore to come at last beyond the gates
Of time and space, and with the saints to taste
That joy for which the whole creation waits.

But whilst we wait there is no time to waste
In keeping faith with each new generation,
And showing them his mercy and his grace.

Wishing all the mothers of the parish a day filled with love, laughter, family, appreciation and many blessings.
May you all have a very Happy Mother's Day! God bless you!

"WHEN WE EAT THIS BREAD AND DRINK THIS CUP" ~ RESUMING COMMUNION FROM THE CHALICE

We have resumed distributing Communion from the chalice at the Sunday Masses. To be sure, the fullness of Christ's presence is given to us when we participate in Holy Communion through either partaking of the Body or the Blood of the Christ. Nevertheless, the mysteries of Christ's self-offering and our "taking up" of his self-emptying are more fully expressed and experienced when Holy Communion is given under both the Bread of Life and the Cup of Salvation. The manner of reception from the chalice is to take and drink. After replying "Amen", carefully receive the chalice from the Minister of the Communion. Take a sip. Then, carefully return the chalice to the Minister. Please do not intinct with the Host. The Ministers of Communion have been trained to distribute with care and reverence. Common sense tells us that if we have either a contagious illness, a mild cold, or a compromised immune system, we must refrain from receiving from the chalice. Children who have made their First Communion may receive with the permission of their parents.

FIRST COMMUNION DURING THE SUNDAY MASSES OF THE EASTER SEASON

More children of the parish will receive Holy Communion for the first time this weekend at the 12 pm Mass. Please pray for them and their parents, and show them great hospitality as brothers and sisters in the Lord.

CASSEROLES FOR THE GOOD SHEPHERD REFUGE

In answering the Lenten Challenge parishioners prepared 121 casseroles in April. This is the collective response from new cooks and the continuous support from those who have prepared casseroles for many years. This plea for help during Lent shows that we can, as a parish, support those who are in great need of a meal. Please consider keeping this Mission of Mercy as part of your routine throughout the year. A huge THANK YOU to everyone who helped make this donation to the Good Shepherd our best to date. Recipes and pans are available in the cupboard at the back of the church. Please drop off your frozen casserole to the Ministry Centre during office hours. Last drop off date for May is Monday the 26th.

SHARELIFE ~ MAY 11 ~ WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS ~ MOTHER'S DAY

Sow the seeds of hope for the next generation

In addition, St. Augustine's Seminary educates permanent deacons and lay people serving our parishes. Thank you for your prayers and commitment towards young people on their journeys of faith.

REFLECTION

"My sheep hear my voice. I know them, and they follow me." ~ John 10:27

Ask yourselves if you are his sheep, if you know him, if you recognize the light of truth. What I mean is that you recognize it not simply by faith but by love, I mean, you recognize it not just by belief but by action. For John the apostle, whose words we have been discussing, also said: "He who says he know God but disobeys his commandments is a liar." Consequently, in the passage we were originally considering, the Lord at once adds: "...as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I lay down my life for the sheep." It is as if he said straight out: "The proof that I know the Father and the Father knows me is the fact that I lay down my life for my sheep; that is to say, the love which leads me to die for my sheep shows how much I love the Father." He goes on to add the following words concerning the sheep: "My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me, and I give them eternal life." A little earlier he said also: "If anyone enters by me, he will be saved and will go in and out and find pasture." That is to say, he will go into faith, and go out from faith to vision, from belief to contemplation, and he will find pasture at the everlasting feast.

So the sheep find the Lord's pastures; for anyone who follows him with an undivided heart is nourished in a pasture which is forever green. What are the pastures of these sheep if they are not the deepest joys of the everlasting fresh pastures of paradise? For the pasture of the saints is to see God face-to-face; when the vision of God never fails, the soul receives its fill of the food of life for ever. And so, dear brethren, let us seek these pastures and there join in the joy and the celebrations of so many citizens of Heaven. Let their happiness and rejoicing be an invitation to us. Let our hearts grow warm, brethren, let our faith be rekindled, let our desires for heavenly things grow warm; for to love like this is to be on the way. No misfortune should distract us from this happiness and deep joy; for if anyone is anxious to reach a destination, the roughness of the road will not make him change his mind. The charms of prosperity must not lead us astray; for only a foolish traveler, when he sees pleasant fields on his way, forgets to go on towards his destination.

~ Excerpt from a homily by St. Gregory the Great on Christ, the Good Shepherd.

May the Lord bless you and keep you!
